ANOTHER FOR BROOKLAND.

Team Scores Fifth Victory by Beating Columbia Athletic Club.

The Brookland team won its fifth consecutive victory yesterday, defeating the Columbia Athletic Club 5 to 1.

The game was won in the first session, when a base on balls, an error, and clean singles by King and Middy netted three runs.

After the first the Athletics tightened up, and played a fast game.

Brookland and Commerce and Labor will play on the Monument Lot to-morrow evening.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Richmond, Va., April 25.—Richmond and Danville played nine innings to a tie in the face of threatening clouds on a soggy diamond here this afternoon. The final result stood 4 to 4.

The game was cut short early in the first inning by rain, but it soon stopped, and the contest continued. Score:

Roanoke Loses Again.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Roanoke, Va., April 25.—Roanoke lost again to-day to Lynchburg, the score being 5 to 0. The Highlanders played poor ball all the way through, while the visitors took advantage of every opportunity to swat the sphere and travel the course. The play only went six innings, being stopped by rain. Score:

Norfolk Loses on Errors.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Norfolk, Va., April 25.—Errors by Selfert enabled Portsmouth to win from Norfolk 2 to 1 this afternoon. Portsmouth also gets the first series between the clubs. The feature of to-day's game was the home-run hit by Fox over the right-field fence, the longest hit and only home-run hit on the Portsmouth grounds this season. Score:

Both Teams Field Well and Bat Poorly at Charlottesville.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Charlottesville, Va., April 25.—Virginia found little trouble in blanking Davidson to-day, 4 to 0, in the final on the home grounds.

Both teams fielded sharply, but the hitting was light. Carl Walker allowed the visitors but three hits.

Virginia scored two runs in the first, on a timely hit by Hume. In the third, Stuart Walker knocked the ball to the center-field fence for a home run. Bricker sent Cabaniss across the plate in the sixth with a long fly to center.

Honaker made a great stop of Turner's liner back of second, and caught the runner at first.

MIDDIES SHUT OUT QUAKERS

Win Snappy Game by Two Runs in the Eighth.

Pretty Pitchers' Battle for Seven Innings on the Annapolis Diamond.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Annapolis, Md., April 25.—After playing to a standstill for seven innings, the Midshipmen, by some clever stick work in the eighth inning, got two runners across the pan, and thereby accomplished the defeat of the nine of the University of Pennsylvania. The game was one of the finest exhibitions of the national game that has been seen on the local diamond this season, being replete with snappy fielding by both teams. The contest soon resolved itself into a pitchers' battle, and for seven innings there was little to choose between Lanphier and Twitmire. In the eighth, however, Twitmire seemed to weaken, while his opponent was steady until the end, and on the whole the Middy twirler had a shade the better of the argument, as only two safe hits were made off his delivery.

The Quakers' most opportune chance to score came in the first inning, when, after two men had been retired on easy grounders, the bases were filled by two errors and a base on balls, but the third out was an easy one, and ever after that the Middies were constantly on the job accepting all but one chance. But the fielding honors went to Londrigan, the Quaker captain. He accepted five chances, three of which were difficult ones, and also had four put-outs to his credit. Gillam, Navy's little shortstop, also fielded superbly. He more than offset his one error by accepting six chances and scoring five put-outs. The proceedings of the eighth inning, which proved Pennsylvania's downfall came in this way: Hambach, the first up, struck out, but Twitmire passed Lanphier, Bacon followed with a neat single to the center garden. Gillam went out, Londrigan to Pautis. Wilson then laid down a slow fielding bunt along the third-base line, which he beat out, and both Hambach, who ran for Lanphier, and Bacon crossed the plate on the play. The Quakers tried hard to turn the tide in the ninth. They managed to get two men on bases, but the necessary hit was not forthcoming. The score:

EASY FOR GALLAUDET.

Kendall Green Team Trims Western Maryland by 10 to 7.

Gallaudet trounced Western Maryland by 10 to 7 at Kendall Green yesterday afternoon.

Gallaudet took the lead by getting a tally in the first inning, and added another in the third inning. The visitors managed to tie the score in the fourth inning, but Gallaudet came back with a vengeance in the next inning.

Dillon opened up with a three-bagger, and Havinstitute was pounded all over the field. When the side was retired Gallaudet had scored six runs.

In the ninth inning, with his team six runs in the lead, Dillon weakened, and allowed the visitors to draw up three runs closer.

The change in Gallaudet's infield worked an improvement. Dooley's timely slugging was the feature for the visitors. Wiley's poor work behind the bat caused him to give way to Gibson in the seventh inning, and Hanks relieved Havinstitute in the box at this period.

Howar had a busy day at third. Morris led at the bat, with four hits. The score:
